Procedure

Employment Practices

All Managers and Supervisors should be aware of the possible ramifications of their actions when dealing with employee/volunteer issues. They must ensure that all employees/volunteers are treated with fairness, equality and respect.

If there are any doubts or queries in relation to how to deal with a particular set of circumstances, Managers or Supervisors should contact the Human Resources Department for advice at the earliest opportunity.

Where a grievance or dispute has been brought to a Manager's attention, he/she should assess whether the employee involved is covered by an Award or Agreement, and if so should refer to that document for grievance procedures. If the employee/volunteer involved is not covered by such a document, the guidelines below should be followed.

Grievances and Dispute Resolution

An employee or volunteer who considers that they have a dispute or grievance should raise the matter with their immediate supervisor as a first step towards resolution. The two parties should discuss the matter openly and work together to achieve a desired outcome.

The Manager or Supervisor should check for clarification of the issue to ensure they fully understand the complainant's concern. Managers should follow the standard procedure of offering the employee/volunteer the opportunity to have an independent witness at the discussion, ensuring they follow the steps outlined below:

- If more than one person is present, establish the role of each person.
- Outline the process that is to be followed.
- Inform the parties that any information obtained in the conduct of the review is confidential.
- Listen to the complainant and diagnose the problem.
- Take accurate and detailed notes of all conversations (including dates, people involved) and attach any supporting documentation.
- If deemed necessary, provide the employee/volunteers with a written summary of the meeting and clarification of the next steps to be taken.

The Manager must ensure that the manner in which the meeting is conducted will be conducive to maintaining positive working relationships, and will provide a fair, objective and independent analysis of the situation.

All parties are to maintain complete confidentiality at all times.

If the matter is not resolved and the employee/volunteer wishes to pursue it, the issue should be discussed with a Human Resources Officer, then, if necessary, the General Manager. Again, the matter is to be discussed openly and objectively with management to ensure it is fully understood.

If the grievance/dispute is one of a confidential or serious nature involving the Employee/Volunteer's Manager, the complainant may discuss the issue directly with the Human Resources Department or the General Manager.
